THE ITALIAN AMERICAN HERITAGE CORPORATION

Guidelines for the Mother Cabrini Award

The Mother Cabrini Award is intended to honor an individual who has provided outstanding service to the Italian American community of St. Louis for many years. It is intended to be a lifetime achievement award and should be awarded to an individual for his/her past achievements. The individual should be someone who is well known within of the Italian American community and would bring added attention to the Columbus Parade and associated activities. The selection of this individual is limited to members of the Italian American community. However, the individual need not be of Italian descent. It may be presented to an individual only once.

- Nominations for the Mother Cabrini Award must be recommended by one of the participating organizations of the Italian American Heritage Corporation. More than one organization can nominate the same individual.
- Nominations must be submitted, in writing, to the Secretary of the Italian American Heritage Corporation. Nominations should include a detailed biography indicating the accomplishments of the individual and the reason(s) that this individual is recommended for this award.
- A 4"x6" photograph of the nominee must accompany the nomination form.
- The Committee Chairperson may disqualify any recommendation that does not meet these requirements.
- Nominations for this award will be accepted beginning May 1st and will be accepted through the last Sunday in June. Nominations submitted after the deadline will not be considered. The selection will be made in the month of July.
- The selection of the committee shall be final.
- All material submitted becomes the property of the St. Louis Columbus Day Committee and the Italian American Heritage Corporation.
